More than 125 women gathered at the 44th annual meeting of the YWCA of Western Wayne County to celebrate "the turning of challenge into change."

Motto for the event was "Create the Challenge - 1998."

Seventeen women, who have been elected to the Board of Directors of the YWCA of Western Wayne County, were honored at the Feb. 25 association's annual dinner and awards were presented to 13 people for outstanding service.

Service award honorees were Misty Bevard, Child Care Center; Carol Thomas, Child & Neighborhood Program of Westland; Betty Brzezan, Dearborn Head Start; Chris Heaton, Dorsey Day Camp; Jana Shaw, Dorsey Young Friends; Hiyam Hamade and Mary Knoch, Encore Plus; Claudette Fears, Informatics; Atallah Sleiman, School Readiness; Kristie Rice, VIP Program; Betty McGhee, Westwood Day Camp, and Alma Jones, Y-We-Go.

Mary Ribron was honored for nearly five decades of service to the YWCA with the YWCA Volunteer Award of Meritorious Service.

Elected to three-year terms on the YWCA Board were Terry Ahwal, Joyce Ball, Jennifer Granholm, Suzanne Hall, Colleen Pobur, Marianne Rilley, Carol Steffani, Marianne Talon, Karen Woodside and Joan Dyer-Zinner.

Two year terms will be served by Donna McEachern of Wayne, Carolyn Kimbrough of Westland, Tommie Butler and Veronica Massey. Nadia Berry, Maha Freij and Clementine Payton of Inkster will serve one-year terms.

Viola Dougherty and Margie Rose, both of Inkster, were elected as board representatives to the 1998-99 nominating committee. Elected from the membership to serve on the nominating committee were Dr. Shereen Arraf, Kay Beard, Mary Dumas, Margaret Glatfelter, Naomi James and Judge Sylvia James.

The Rev. Suzanne Walls of Inkster chaired the annual meeting. Judge Virginia Sobotka presented the treasurer's report and President Viola Dougherty related the highlights of the YWCA's programs in 1997.

Dougherty noted that the community outreach of the YWCA is meeting the changing needs of the people in its service area.

She reported that third year funding was awarded to Encore Plus enabling more than 3,000 women to receive health awareness information and 300 to be screened for breast and cervical cancer.

"Head Start expanded to serve 296 families, adding full day, year-around Head Start for 51 working families of Western Wayne County," the YWCA president said, adding that the program has expanded in Dearborn and Taylor.

Other successful programs are:

- The after-school drug and violence prevention program, piloted in Westland, was replicated in the Westland School District. Collaboration with Wayne County Community Health moved toward creation of a model in Inkster for Youth of Color.

- The School Readiness Program was funded by the Michigan Department of Education for the fourth year.

- VIP Day Camp provided life skills and community interaction for trainable and educable mentally impaired children with funding from Wayne County Mental Health.

Belleville sailor on duty in Arabian Gulf

Wayne County's Scott W. Fitzgerald had a small but important role to play in the recent showdown with Iraq.

Navy Petty Officer 3rd Class Fitzgerald, the 23-year-old son of Rick and Linda Fitzgerald of Belleville and son-in-law of Eddie and Mae Jones of Wayne, is assigned to Navy Helicopter Combat Support Squadron Four (HC-4). Fitzgerald, an aviation electrician, and others in his detachment are currently deployed to the Arabian Gulf.

"Our squadron supports the fleet because we fly the biggest helicopter around, and no one can carry the cargo we can haul in one flight," said Fitzgerald, a 1992 graduate of Belleville High School. He is also married to the Joneses' daughter Michelle.

Wadsworth, Sabo to wed

James Wadsworth and Antoinette Sabo

Antoinette V. Sabo of Allen Park and James E. Wadsworth of Romulus have announced plans to marry on Sept. 12 at St. Aloysius Catholic Church of Romulus.

Wadsworth, an environmentalist working for the Wayne County Health Division, is the son of Romulus Councilman William Wadsworth and Jean Wadsworth, a registered nurse.

He graduated from Romulus High School in 1987 and from Eastern Michigan University in 1993. He ran track while at Romulus High.

Sabo, a secretary also at the Wayne County Health Division, is the daughter of Larry and Toni Sabo of Palm Harbor, Fla. She graduated from Southgate High School in 1987 and Dorsey Business School.

Slated to be bridesmaids are Tammy Locke and Diane Dobrich and the groomsmen will be Billy and John Wadsworth.

A reception is being planned at Grafton Hall in Carleton.

Marshmallow drop set for April 11

A major Easter Marshmallow Drop is being planned for 10 a.m. April 11 at Heritage Park in Canton for township children 10 years and younger.

The free annual helicopter drop activity is being sponsored by the Canton Parks and Recreation Department.

"As an aviation electrician, I troubleshoot and fix electrical systems. [The training] will help me get a job once I leave the service."

- Scott W. Fitzgerald

Working with the people who maintain the squadron's CH-53E heavy lift helicopters has given Fitzgerald pride in belonging to elite team of professionals, which has its own rewards.

"As an aviation electrician, I troubleshoot and fix electrical system. (The training) will help me get a job once I leave the service," said Fitzgerald, a three-year Navy veteran.

Whether they are cooks or pilots, Sailors like Fitzgerald are ready to provide credible combat power for prolonged on-scene presence worldwide.

Junior Misses head for pageant

Stephanie Mead

Amy McCerracher

The two girls will spend a week in Alpena. While they aren't busy have lunch with city official and the chamber of commerce, they will have the opportunity to attend a class at Alpena Community College.

Since the money they win in the Junior Miss Program goes to college scholarships, this will give contestants a chance to see what college is like.

Of course there will be many rehearsals too. There will be five areas of judging, just like the local program. The 13 contestants will compete in interview, scholastic achievement, creative interpretation, fitness, and poise and composure.

The winner of the program will receive a full scholarship to a college in Mobile, Alabama where the national Junior Miss Scholarship Program will take place in June.

Hermatz said McCerracher and Mead have an excellent chance of placing in this program.

up. She will be competing as the Nankin Mills junior miss.

Because the scores were so close it was decided both girls would be sent to represent this area, said Pat Hermatz, president, Wayne Westland Junior Miss.

"This is the first time in years we have sent someone from Nankin Township," she said.

The Wayne-Westland School District has accepted an offer for $850,000 by Academy of Detroit North to purchase the property that was formerly Cherry Hill High School.

This surplus property has been on the market since last fall, said Patti Brand, assistant superintendent, business.

This does not include the John Hill Middle School. The school district is keeping ownership of that property and is looking into leasing it out.

In other news the district passed a resolution to declare March Parent Awareness Month.

Bev Brooks, Family Resource Director, said, "I was a wonderful parent until I had kids. The purpose of PAM is to celebrate people who raise children."

The Family Resource Center at Lincoln Elementary School in Westland has resources to help parents and students in the district. They also conduct workshops to help develop parenting skills. Call 734-595-2279

Hit the road, NAAWP and don't come back

Kudos to the City of Wayne, who last week, told the National Association for the Advancement of White People (NAAWP) they were not welcome here.

The NAAWP fronted by Garden City resident Todd Lemire planned to hold a membership drive at the Wayne Community Center. The building was rented in the name of Lemire for a supposed birthday party. The birthday party, however, was advertised on the Internet as a membership meeting for the sometimes-labeled neo-nazi, pro-white group.

The City, when they learned Lemire was merely a front man for the NAAWP, faced a quandary. Laws specifically state that a public building must be rented to one and all-there can be no discrimination.

But when activists Jim Netter and New Hope Church minister, Rev. Virgil Humes were made aware of the pending NAAWP meeting, the pressure began building for City Manager John Zech, Police Chief Mike Sumeracki and the council.

Rev. Humes, said it most eloquently, "Tell them, no, they're disinited, and then face them in court. Call them out and take the next stop. Otherwise they will parade here with swastikas. The floodgates of the City of Wayne will be wide open."

In the end the City found their "out" in a clause in the contract that said the lease cannot sublease the building without the permission of the City. And counter-demonstrations were abundant on Sunday at the Community Center. Approximately 40 people paraded around the building with cop cars abundantly present just in case NAAWP members made their presence known.

Thankfully, the hate group decided to stay away.

Clearly, the cancellation of this event was a victory for Wayne. These types of neo-nazi, KKK practitioner groups serve only to stir-up trouble. Their political agendas which expose white superiority and take hatred to a new level against African-Americans and Jews, do not belong in modern society.

One wonders, however, if this is the end. Typically neo-nazi groups, armed with the first amendment, will prevail in their efforts to meet at a specific location. Remember Ann Arbor last year? The KKK was allowed to meet, only to be confronted by counter-demonstrators. The result was a bloodbath. I would appeal to NAAWP, if you must meet, to keep the gathering private. A remote field would be more appropriate than a community center. Nothing is to be gained by a public display.

Again, Rev. Humes said it best upon deciding to sponsor a unity brunch at his church. In inviting all groups to the church he said, "Let's have a diverse gathering of many groups without hate and bigotry. Black and white people need to appreciate each other. We all need to live together."

Backward white people ought to advance

"We're going to let you in on a secret." This tantalizing offer is made to browsers of the website for the National Association for the Advancement of White People (NAAWP).

The secret, which "few people dare to talk about in today's politically correct world," is that "white people created modern civilization and modern science"; and that other cultures are, "in many cases, still in the Stone Age and live in mud huts."

If you're against the hut dwellers, more secrets are available. The NAACP invites you to sum up all of your "courage" and join them in making "America a better place." All you have to do is "send in your $25 annual subscription fee, and we'll send you a year's worth of hard hitting, no holds barred information in the NAAWP Newsletter."

That's what the NAAWP is all about, a subscription to a newsletter for white folks who want to read about other cultures living in huts like the Three Little Pigs.

To me this sounds sad. Yet civil rights activists in the city of Wayne think it's scary. That's why they pressured City Manager John Zech to prohibit a NAAWP rally in the city's community center, which Zech was able to do on a technicality — the rally room was apparently rented under false pretenses.

Though Zech was technically correct, I think his efforts would be more profitably spent hiring more black workers in the city, including a black department head, if he's truly interested in creating racial harmony, a worthy goal.

However, all Zech's and City Attorney Richard Clark's efforts devoted to preventing a few people from assembling to discuss imaginary people of color living in mud huts accomplished nothing positive. It only glorifies an impotent group and diverts city officials and civil rights activists from Wayne's two legitimate civil rights goals: one, hiring visible blacks; and two, hiring a few woman police and fire officers.

Though Rev. Virgil Hume, a fierce opponent of the NAAWP, says he's been trying to persuade Zech to integrate the ranks of the city's directors, he neither demonstrates for that goal nor holds prayer sessions. Instead of going whole hog against the evil of institutional racism, he puts the bulk of his energy into fighting the harmless NAAWP.

Hasn't it occurred to him that, on the basis of its website, the NAAWP reeks of backward white people. Wouldn't it be better if these knuckle dragger advanced? Accordingly, I favor the advancement of backward white people.

But I've had it up to here with non-issues that distract good people for their real work. In Wayne and Westland, the real issue is to integrate city hall now.

Mike's musings
Mike Wilcox

HOW MANY TIMES MUST YOU BE TOLD?!! WE WANT MONEY!!!
WHY AREN'T YOU GETTING THE MESSAGE?!

Anti-gun piece missed the point

To the editor:

I would like to respond to Mike Wilcox's article entitled "Statistics Argue Against Gun Laws". I found, as I am sure most of your other readers did, very little to do with concealed carry laws. His comments sound quite similar to an article in the Feb. 2, 1998 issue of the Detroit Free Press. They reported on a paper written by the American College of Physicians which was published in the Annals of Internal Medicine. The journal reported that in 1994 39,270 people died of gunshots. (13,593 slayings-20,540 suicides, and I presume the remaining 5,137 were accidental shootings.) That same year 42,424 people died in motor vehicle accidents.

Rather than blame the firearms for the 13,593 slayings, let's focus our attention on the criminals who commit these heinous crimes. These miscreants, which are intent on killing someone, will do so at any cost and by any means. Restricting the legal ownership of firearms by law-abiding citizens and stripping them of their most effective means of self-defense is not the answer to these slayings. Just like banning automobiles is not the answer to solving auto related fatalities. As a nation we should all be outraged at the pampering these animal receive. Call for tougher and stricter punishment rather than light sentencing and early paroles. Mr. Wilcox claims that the homicide rate among 15 to 19 years olds have increased by 212 percent, I wonder what the exact number is since percentages can be deceiving. How many of these individuals were engaged in gang activities or other illicit actions? Surely this "teenage" percentage is inflated with the inclusion of 18 and 19 year olds who are not considered to be minors.

As tragic as teen suicide is, I fail to see the correlation between it and legally carrying a concealed weapon for self-defense. First, let me remind you that it is already illegal for minors to own hand guns and therefore, they would not be able to apply for a concealed weapons permit. Secondly, someone who is determined to take their life can choose from a vast array of methods. These people are deeply troubled and need counseling, love and support. Infringing upon our constitutional rights is not going to solve their problems or prevent them from committing suicide. In recent decades the number of firearms has quadrupled but accidental shootings are at an all time low. This is due in great part because of education and awareness. One of the finest programs available to our youth is the NRA's Eddie Eagle Gun Safety Program. Millions of K-6 grade student have already participated in this award winning program. Eddie Eagle has a simple but effective message. When kids come across a firearm, they are to: 1) Stop. 2) Do not touch. 3) Leave the area. 4) Tell an adult. With firearms being in over half the homes of America, this program gives children the tools and knowledge to safety handle such an encounter.

Rather than compare the U.S. with foreign nations, I would like to draw Mr. Wilcox's attention toward two creditable studies of recent date. If Mr. Wilcox is as well versed about CCW permits and crime reduction as he claims to be, then I am sure he is familiar with them.

In the summer of 1996, Dr. John Lott and David Mustard of the University of Chicago released the findings of their unprecedented study "Crime, Deterrence, and Right-to-Carry Concealed Handguns." This study spanned a 15 year period from 1977-1992 and included every county in the United States using almost 50,000 separate pieces of data. This research showed that those states which have "shall-issue" laws saw a dramatic decrease in violent crime. Anti-gun media and forces have cried these liberal laws would lead to "Old West" shoot outs and a sharp rise in accidental shootings. This has clearly not been the case. Professor Lott's findings show that if those states that did not permit concealed handguns in 1992, had permitted them back then, citizens would have been spared approximately 1,570 murders, 4,177 rapes, 60,000 aggravated assaults and 12,000 robberies. Lott summed it up with this statement "to put it even more simply: Criminals, we found respond rationally to deterrence threats." This study put 1990's numbers to something American gun-owners knew long before: The protection afforded society by firearms in the hands of law-abiding Americans far outweighs any harm caused by them.

The other is a study by Gary Kleck which claims handguns are used defensively 1.5-2.5 million times a year by private citizens. This figure has come under attack by the anti-gun organization, Handgun Control Inc. led by Sarah Brady. They prefer to cite a study by the University of Maryland which states the really number is 65,000 times per year. Thus by H.C.I.'s own light, 65,000 murders, rapes, and other violent assaults upon the innocent were prevented annually by armed citizens using firearms defensively. It has been clearly shown that the most effective deterrent to these assaults is the use of a firearm. The local newscasts are filled with reports of innocent people who are assaulted daily with no legal way of defending themselves. The recent story of an elderly motorist pulled from his van and savagely beaten with a pipe because of a traffic accident is only one of many examples. Mr. Wilcox, it is a shame that you and others of the anti-gun movement would deny law-abiding citizens their God-given right to self-defense.

Mr. Wilcox, the United States, even with the problems and challenges we face, continues to be the greatest and freest of any nation on earth. We have been immeasurably blessed in so many ways. The freedoms we enjoy as guaranteed in the Bill of Rights, yes even the freedom of speech

Thanks a Million

WEEKLY SYNDICATED COLUMN by PERCY ROSS

Millionaire Percy Ross is known for his philanthropic work. He offers help and encouragement for those in need. He has earned a fortune and a wealth of knowledge during his lifetime and wants to share both. His motto: "He who gives while he lives... also knows where it goes."

A Solution Is As Close As A Phone Call Away

Dear Percy Ross: A while back a lady from New York wrote about her son being a bed-wetter and you had printed the address to the American Enuresis Foundation. Well, I have a nine year old daughter who also had this problem. I wrote to the address for information. I, too, did not have an extra $450, so I took on a night job selling candles. When I got enough money saved, I sent for the information with my check, and when I got the packet I started to cry. On the outside of all the literature for their logo was a candle with the saying, "Better to light a candle than to curse the darkness." Then I knew the nights I spent working were all worth it. God really does work in mysterious ways. Needless to say, my daughter has been dry for two months! She is so happy now. I just want to say thank you for putting that address in your article, because you changed our lives totally!

Dry in Utah

Dear Dry: Congratulations! On a lighter note, most of the folks in the state of Utah are dry and it's not their beds I'm referring to. I've heard nothing but praise for the American Enuresis Foundation, so for any of my other readers who may be interested the address is: P. O. Box 33062, Tulsa, OK 74153-1061 or phone (918) 627-8586. They are the people to contact if you're looking for positive results.

Dear Percy: In my advanced placement European history class, we've been given the opportunity to travel to France and Belgium. When I heard about this, I knew I had to go. The cost is $1,600, and so far I've saved up $357.50 through babysitting and fundraising. The fundraiser is a "cow pie drop." Our football field is split into 5,000 squares. Wherever the cow pie drops, that square wins. So far I've only been able to sell 14 tickets. My dad works two jobs and my mom works one. We have 4 kids in our family so my parents really can't help me out. I know it's late, but I'm determined to go and I'm doing everything possible to get there. If you can help me either by buying some tickets at $5 a piece or donating some money, I'd really appreciate it.

Miss M. A. ... The Sun, San Bernardino, CA

Dear Miss A.: The fundraiser could be a real flop if you end up with a constipated cow. Your letter was received well after the cut off so I won't be able to participate in that. However, I will send you $200 toward your goal, provided you do some community service like visiting the elderly. It may not be as exciting as visiting France and Belgium, but nonetheless, there is a lot of history and culture to be learned from them as well. Good luck.

Dear Mr. Ross: As a result of my public defender not doing his job in court, I am currently incarcerated. I'm in dire need of a lawyer. There are several firms in the area that may handle cases on a pro bono basis. The difficulty is trying to find them since no one has a listing under these terms. That means I am going to have to individually write to all the law firms in this area. The prison only gives us 10 envelopes per month. To do a mass mailing inquiry I'll need a small loan. The jail charges 35-cents per postage paid envelope, plus I will need typewriter paper ($3.22 for 200 sheets). I figure a mailing of at least 225 inquiries will find its mark. Using these figures, I will need $85.19 to accomplish my goal. I'm in jail because of a stupid domestic abuse dispute. Thank you and I assure you this is by no means a frivolous request.

Mr. G. C. ... Patriot News, Harrisburg, PA

Dear Mr. C.: I don't care if your request is for 85-cents or $85,000. Anytime someone is in jail for domestic abuse, he is there for a reason. And the only thing stupid about domestic abuse is your behavior. You've got time, so think it over.

As writer Jeff Cooper stated "The ultimate definition of political liberty is the right to keep and bear arms-the right of the individual to keep and bear his own personal arms. Without that right all other rights are meaningless."

In conclusion, I would like to applaud the efforts of all our state legislators who are fighting to preserve these rights. These efforts have nothing to do with being "en vogue" as Mr. Wilcox describes it, but rather with what is right. Preserving our freedom and our God-given right to self-defense for us and our families. With this letter I would strongly urge our legislators to support and quickly pass "shall issue" concealed carry legislation.

Petition drive seeks to halt casinos

To the editor:

The spread of casino gambling must be stopped, now! It can be if Proposal E, which approved casinos in Detroit, is repealed in the November election. To put Proposal E on the ballot again 248,000 valid registered voters signatures are needed on petitions by May 27, 1998.

God's word commands, "You shall not steal. You shall not covet" (Exodus 20:15, 17), "Do not defraud your neighbor or rob him" (Leviticus 19:13). Yet, that is exactly what is taking place in our own state of Michigan. The very real fact is that casino gambling is a part of our environment. This must concern everyone who cares about building communities and families on solid values that promote health and well-being! Those who promote casino gambling as the road to wealth, happiness, security, and trouble free living are promoting a lie! The increased presence of gambling destroys families and communities. In every city in America that has casinos, it is well documented that its people are exposed to:

- Increases in wife abuse and child abuse and neglect
- Increases in divorce rate
- Increases in suicides
- Increases in crime
- Increases in personal and business bankruptcies
- Increases in government corruption

As you can see, casino gambling effects every segment of family life and society. Gambling is just a way from millionaires to become billionaires at the expense of the common man. No one has the right to profit from the misery of others.

Concerned citizens: stop casino gambling! Sign a petition to Repeal Proposal E at your place of worship or contact me today at (734) 941-0736 on how you can help repeal Proposal E. For the sake of our families and our communities casino gambling must be stopped!

Conservative blacks are whited out

To the editor:

A lot of the Black History I have read is interesting and educating. Some of the wannabe historians seem to go too far, however. All black navies representing several countries existing in Columbus' time? And the Egyptians language, law, customs, and way of life emanated from black cultures? The stretch is a little much.

It is easier to keep track of today's progress and I can readily accept and honor the accomplishments of J. C. Watts, Clarence Thomas, Walter Williams, and Thomas Sowell. Black liberals don't want any of us to believe that the above named are worthy of respect and admiration. The battle is really ideological.

SSI kids deserved 'second chance'

To the editor:

It's not often that you get a second chance in life, but almost 90,000 children with disabilities will get just that because the Social Security Administration has mailed out second redetermination notices to children whose benefits were terminated since last summer from the Supplemental Security Income (SSI) program due to welfare reform. Families who receive these notices also will find a new vital feature included: statewide hotline numbers where they can get free legal representation, which the American Bar Association and children's advocates believe will greatly improve SSI families' chances of retaining funding.

As soon as a SSI families get these notices, they should use the hotline numbers to link up with a lawyer who will represent them without charge during their new SSA review. Time is of the essence.

The ABA urged the SSA to issue new redetermination notices and to include the statewide hotline numbers for free legal help to ensure that these children get their right to due process and not just an administrative review. On Dec. 17, the SSA finally agreed to do just that. ABA Commissioner Kenneth Apfel is to be commended for taking this step toward treating these most vulnerable of children fairly.

Birthdays celebrate milestones of life

Last Saturday, a vivacious and energetic Belleville resident celebrated her 75th birthday with a large group of friends, relatives and neighbors at the VFW Hall in Romulus.

Guests looked through old photographs posted on the wall, chatted about the "good old days," ate a delicious meal and then danced to a lively karaoke as they celebrated Shirley Straub's 75th birthday. More than one well-wisher promised to return to celebrate Shirley's 100th birthday!

"Do you remember when we thought that 75 was old," a guest asked. "Now, it doesn't seem that 75 is really old, does it?" I had to agree, especially in the case of Shirley Straub.

The honoree is a good example of an individual with varied interests, who enjoys travel and dancing, good company and hobbies - all things that help to keep her young at heart.

In the past, few people would have marked their 75th birthday with big celebrations, but today there seems to be a new attitude. People who reach certain milestones in their lives are happy to celebrate them and not embarrassed to acknowledge their number of years on earth.

One of my good friends - a professional woman who competently fills a full-time position - is planning to celebrate her 70th birthday with a party hosted by her children, and another acquaintance, who could easily shave 10 years off his true age without question, is being honored with a 60th birthday party.

Perhaps, we are finally believing that "you are as old as you feel," and not worrying so much about the numbers, but more about the quality and enjoyment of life.

People don't seem to be afraid of those milestones that were once dreaded as the "Big 50" or the "Big 60."

Our ideas of aging and retiring have changed as many people opt for second careers and active lifestyles after the traditional age of retirement. For many, retirement means the opportunity for more days on the golf course, more hunting and/or fishing trips, more camping opportunities or more leisurely vacations. The golf cart or travel vehicle has taken the place of the rocking chair for most retirees.

For example, the YWCA of Western Wayne County has abundant opportunities for volunteers in a wide variety of programs. It recently honored Mary Ribron of Inkster for almost 50 years of outstanding volunteer service to the association.

Organizations, such as the Huron Valley Conservation Association, owe much of their success to the active participation of retirees who participate in fishing clinics for youngsters, hunter safety classes for teens and ecology awareness programs for all ages.

Schools cry out for volunteer mentors and tutors, churches seek Sunday School teachers and choir members, political groups look for volunteers to distribute literature and staff offices, and community centers seek coaches, group facilitators and arts and crafts instructors.

There are ample opportunities for men and women to "ease into retirement" through volunteer work, and to continue to make a contribution to their communities.

Area anti-casino effort in final stretch

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

Efforts to halt the spread of Detroit-based casinos took a more aggressive tone last week in western Wayne County, as Pastor Brad Lewis (who is helping coordinate the hunt for 248,000 anti-casino signatures) wrote a letter to the editor urging Christians and others to halt the Metro casino efforts.

Lewis, pastor of the Community United Methodist Church in Romulus, agreed to take on the western Wayne County anti-casino role several months ago.

His letter states the casino effort can be stopped if enough anti-casino forces sign the petitions calling for the repeal of the casino effort by May 27, a little more than two months from now.

The pastor declared "those who promote casino gambling as the road to wealth, happiness, security and trouble free living are promoting a lie!"

Lewis said just the opposite is actually true, as casino activities usually destroy families and communities.

"It is well documented that casino involvements add to spousal abuse and child neglect, heighten the divorce rates, increase the number of suicides, spur criminal activities, add to personal and business bankruptcies and encourage governmental corruption," Lewis said.

He urged registered voters to sign official petitions offered at their family's churches or to call him directly for access to an existing petition at 734-941-0736.

Lewis reminds Christians that God commands that "you shall not steal. You shall not covet." (Exodus 20:15-17). It also states in Leviticus 19:13 that you should "not defraud your neighbor or rob him."

Lewis worries that "casino gambling effects every segment of family life and society. And no one has the right to profit from the misery of others."

Stranded Chicago and Gary, Indiana residents were aided earlier this month by Salvation Army disaster relief personnel as snow and wind blasts trapped more than 3,000 in the Windy City.

Eleven inches of snow and winds in excess of 50 miles per hour downed power lines and stranded travelers, leaving a half million without electricity.

Salvation Army Relief Teams provided food and beverages for stranded storm victims, and in many cases provided shelters across many northern Illinois communities.

The Army's emergency radio network also provided extraordinary communications support for many in the midst of the storm problems.

Mullins wins state wrestling title

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Four years of sweat, blood and tears have paid off in gold for a Belleville High wrestler, who won the top honor Michigan has to offer a high school wrestler in his weight class.

Morgan Mullins, a senior, captured a gold medal in the 140-pound class at the state championships staged on Saturday at Battle Creek Central High School.

Mullins defeated Bay City Western's John Reid in the finals, posting an impressive 15-5, for his first place.

Reid settled for a silver.

Coach by Derrick Phillips, Mullins also won the Mega Conference, Red Division title in his weight.

"He is just one fine kid," said Michael Colletta, Be-lleveille High athletic director. "We are very proud of him."

Mullins launched his bid for the coveted gold medal with a first-round victory over Devin Lambert, who forfeited to the Belleville wrestler due to an injury.

Mullins then moved into the second round where he met Flint Carmen's Vemaun Tillman and sent his opponent packing after carding a 15-5 decision.

Next in line for the state champ was Gary Lemay, out of Troy High School, and again Mullins had no problem claiming the victory.

Three other local wrestlers earned All-State recognition after finishing among the top eight of their respective weight classes.

Plymouth-Salem's versatile athlete, Charles Hamblin, finished second and was awarded a silver medal in the heavyweight class.

After breezing through the semifinals, Hamblin clashed with Detroit Catholic Central's Casey Rogowski and lost to his final opponent.

Romulus also produced an All-State candidate in sophomore Charles Thompson, who won his match in the consolation round and finished fifth at 189.

"He was exceptional in this tournament," said Romulus coach Vern Logan. "Charles got off to a rough start, but he settled down and managed to come away with a fifth-place.

"Remember, he is only a sophomore. He has a great future ahead of him if he continues to work hard."

Thompson wrestled six matches, won four of them.

Long-shot Northville surprises Salem

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Plymouth-Salem and coach Bob Brodie may never forget Marshall Knapp.

Knapp, probably Northville's best kept secret, led a fourth-quarter rally that not only humbled playoff-favorite Salem but ousted the Rocks in the championship round of the Class A district playoffs staged Friday at Novi High.

"It was incredible," said Brodie, of Knapp's efforts after the heartbreaking (for Salem) 71-65 loss. "Sure, Terakedis (Greg) hurt us, but Knapp got some key baskets that really kept their momentum going."

"In fact, just when I began thinking we were going to be all-right out there, this kid would come up with another, yet another key basket."

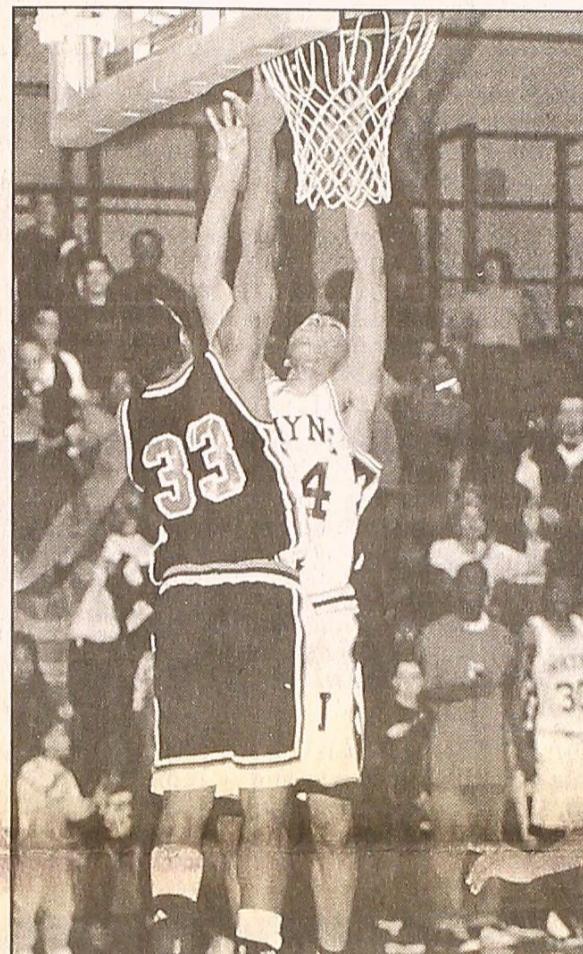

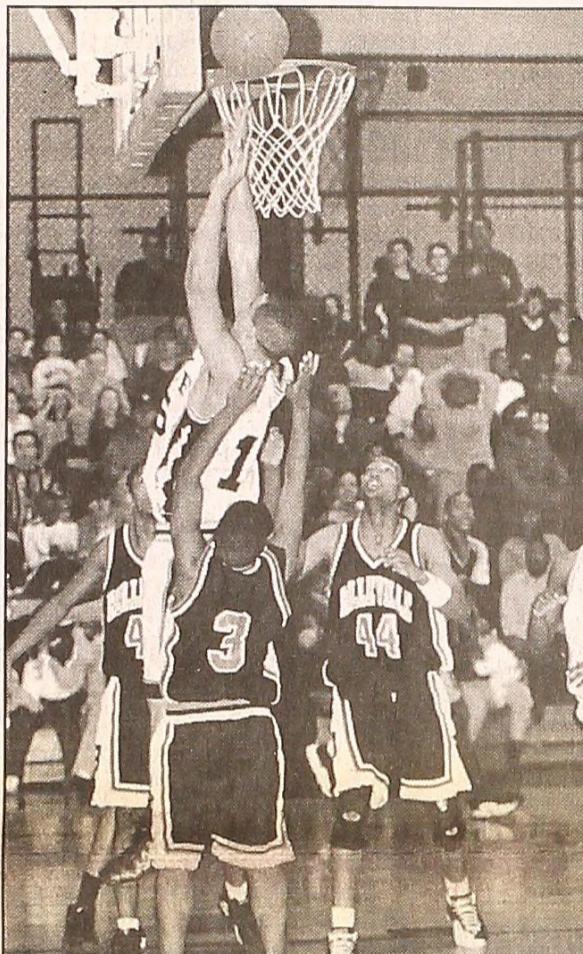

Salem had a 10-point cushion heading into the final stanza as the Rocks, without the services of their injured captain Andy Power, led 14-8 after the first, increased the margin to 29-22 at the half, then outscored their rivals 21-19 to take what appeared a sufficient nine-point lead, 50-41, into the final period.

Then, Knapp, who had 13 points for the evening, got two quick baskets and that apparently ignited his teammates. Terakedis continued to do his thing - he had 40 points for the game - and the 5-9 senior guard also put together a string of 12 straight free throws in the final eight minutes of the game that hurt the Western Lakes Conference champs.

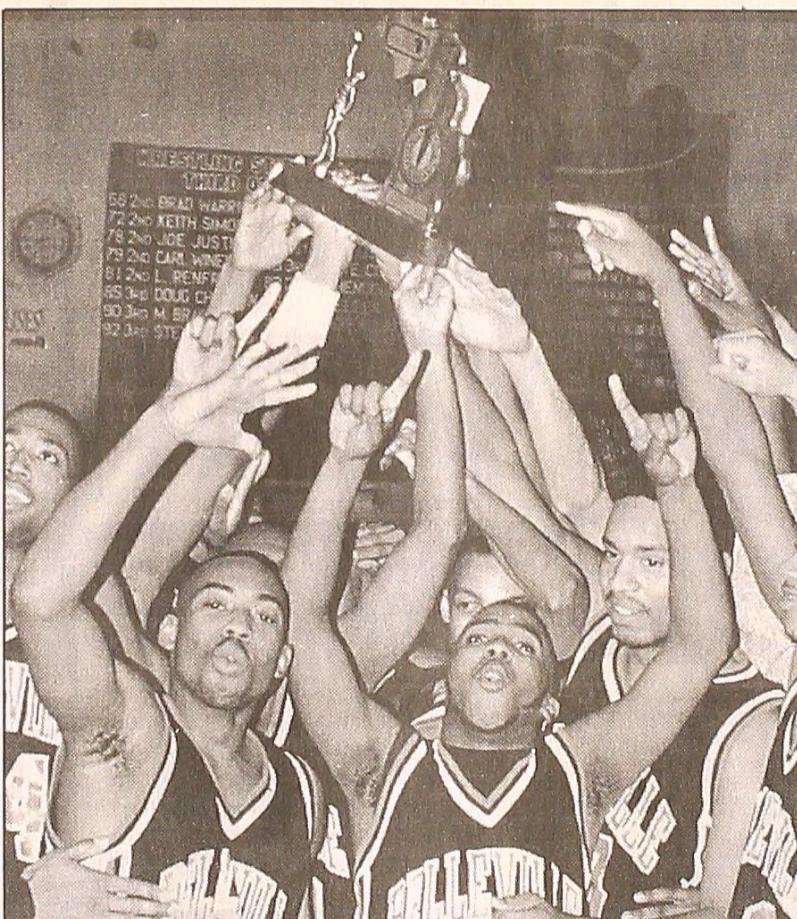

Terakedis sank 12 of 17 opportunities from the foul line in the fourth quarter.

The Rocks' defense had

Tigers edge Wayne

A determined Belleville basketball squad refused to be beaten by Wayne for a third time this season.

Twice was enough for Coach Rod Fisher's Tigers who held on to stun Wayne and found redemption in a 51-49 thrilling victory over the defending Class A district champ.

Apparently infused with renewed spirit by an incredible 18-point victory over an outstanding Westland John Glenn team in the semifinals, Belleville won its first district title in nearly a decade, and the first for second-year coach Rod Fisher before a explosive crowd at Belleville High Friday night.

The victory was Belleville's ticket to the Class A regional playoffs at Ypsilanti High School.

Fans who had abandoned the Tigers earlier this season, after an atypical .500 season, returned in force for the showdown with Wayne and coach Chuck Henry.

And they were rewarded with a victory.

With C. J. Grantham and John Edwards exploding from the perimeter, Belleville jumped to a 17-10 lead after the first period and did not yield the lead until late in the game.

Wayne's Brian Williams, who has carried the Zebras through the rough times, continued his exceptional shooting performance, and brought the Zebras back to within four (28-24) at the half.

Both teams pressed on defense, and neither slowed the transition pace - fast-break was the name of the game.

Belleville edged its way to a 43-38 lead for three, then held off the rallying Zebras who outscored their hosts 11-8 in the final period, but failed to launch the final shot.

Eagles soar, 71-44

By TOM MOORADIAN

Romulus was in a class all its own at the Carleton-Airport district playoffs.

Coach Guy DelGiudice could have, but did not, pick the score against the opponents.

The Eagles soared over Airport, 71-44, in the Class B district championship game staged on Thursday before a disappointing crowd.

The night before, Romulus buried Monroe Jefferson by 40, 95-55, in the semifinal round.

"We had it easy over there (Airport), but we all know it isn't going to be easy going from now on," DelGiudice stressed. "Each game will be tough, and these kids know it."

Romulus advanced to the regional playoffs at Willow Run where DelGiudice's Eagles were scheduled to play the host in the first-round of the playoffs. That game was set for Tuesday.

In the other bracket, top-ranked River Rouge played Dexter last night and Rouge was an overwhelming favorite to advance to the championship round.

Willow Run lands title at Robichaud

Bulldogs bow out

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Working religiously to overcome early a slew of first-half mistakes, Robichaud crumbled under the pressure of playing catch-up Saturday against a well-oiled Willow Run hoop machine that rolled past the Dearborn Heights ball club and to the Class B district title.

"We just made too many turnovers against a team that is reaching its peak," noted Robichaud coach Monte Denard. "When you make something like 20 turnovers, then miss opportunity after opportunity at the free throw line, you have problems."

"And we had problems, believe me."

Willow Run chalked up a 58-59 victory over the reigning

Mega Conference Red Division team and marched into the Regional Playoffs which they are hosting.

The Flyers were scheduled to play Romulus, the winner of the district title (See Related Story on these pages) at the Carleton-Airport district Tuesday night.

The winner of the Romulus-Willow Run game has the dubious honor of playing River Rouge, an overwhelming favorite to whip Dexter, in the other bracket. Rouge has been ranked No. 1 in the state most of the season.

The regional championship will be decided Friday night at 7 p.m. at Willow Run. The champ will advance to the state quarterfinals.

...but beat Inkster

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Before they made their untimely exit from the Class B District playoffs, Robichaud managed to bring down the curtains on natural rival, Inkster's, season.

Behind senior forward Jason Malloy's 22 points, the Bulldogs bolted from a five-point halftime lead, 29-24, to earn their seventh consecutive win, 86-66, in the semifinal round of the playoffs they hosted.

"I felt that we played an excellent ball game, especially in that second half," said Robichaud coach Monte Denard. "The kids didn't allow the early mistakes to get to them."

At one point, Inkster built up a 19-5 lead as Greg Watson, Tom Cunningham and Michael Williams opened up with a barrage of baskets that shook the standing-room-only Robichaud gym.

However, Robichaud recovered after the intermission and went on to win as Peter Brooks and Damon Williams found the range.

Watson finished the season with a team high 18 points, while Cunningham chipped in with 13 points and also grabbed a dozen rebounds. Williams contributed 15 points.

First-year Inkster coach Hilton Graham said he was disappointed with the loss, but not with the players.

"We have had a tough, but learning year," said Graham.

problems silencing Northville's long-range artillery. The Colts hit six threes for the evening.

But it was Terakedia, teaming with Knapp, who almost single-handedly executed the coup. He scored a career high 40 points.

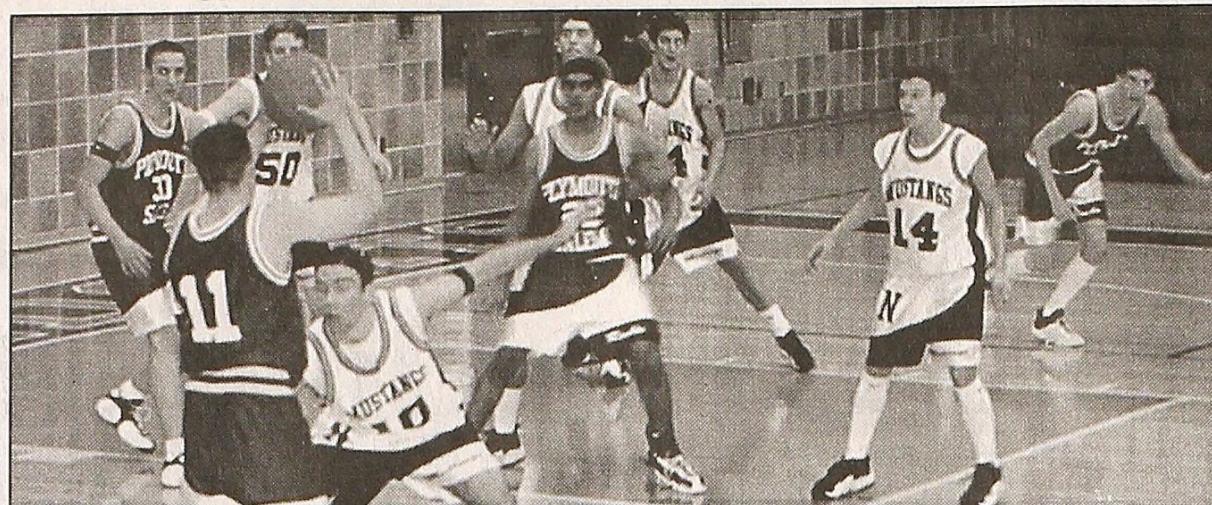

"It was an incredible performance," Brodie admitted.

Salem, without their leader, Power, who was injured in the victory over Westland John Glenn in the championship round of the conference playoffs, placed three players in double figures. Jeff McKian, playing his final game for the Rocks, scored a team high 16, while Bhavin Patel added 14 while Tony Jancevski finished with 12.

Salem did have the satisfaction of ending arch-rival Plymouth-Canton's season - but just barely.

Canton made the Rocks sweat before falling 44-42 in the semifinal round.

Canton fell behind 16-3 in the first period and that

Salem's Matt Mair (with ball) is looking for an open man, but a tenacious Northville zone defense gives him problems. The Western Lakes Conference champs also had their problems stopping the explosive Colts' backcourt which led their team to an upset over the favorites in the Class A district championship game at Novi. Special MCN photo proved fatal in their bid to avenge an earlier loss to their rivals. Although junior guard Joe Cortellini kept the Chiefs within striking distance right to the end, Canton never overcame their early deficit.

Salem led 31-18 at the half, but the Chiefs made it a game with 10-7 and 14-6 scoring advantages in the second half. Cortellini tossed in 16, good enough for the game high in this one. Patel wound up with 14 points for the Rocks.

In the opening round, the Rocks eliminated host, Novi, 41-34, as Matt Mair scored 17 points and McKian pumped in 14 for the winners.

Despite the heartbreaking setback, Brodie said that this team should be proud of its accomplishments this season.

"We had an excellent year - we had a 19-4 season - and won four titles, and not many teams can boast that kind of record," Brodie said. "It was unfortunate that we lost in the finals (to Northville), but you never know what is going to happen - that's what makes this game so exciting."

overall record.

"Our kids have nothing to be ashamed of," stressed Denard. "It's been a gratifying year. Yes, we would have liked to have gone further in the playoffs, but it wasn't in the books for us this year."

"We will be tougher next year, believe me."

performances from Shannon Watson and Richard Williams who contributed a total of 45 of their team's points. Watson's 24 stood out as the game's high.

On the other side of the ledger, Robichaud placed three players in double figures. Damon Brooks wound up with the team's high of 19 points, while Peter Brooks scored 16 and Malloy, playing his final game in a Bulldog jersey, wrapped up his prep hoop career with 12.

Along with winning the White Division title in their inaugural season in the Mega Conference, Robichaud also boasted an admirable 17-6 of its points at the free throw line where the Zebras went 15 of 21 and finished the year with a 12-10 record.

Belleville moved on to the Class A regional tournament at Ypsilanti High where the Tigers were to play Woodhaven.

In the nightcap, it was Ann Arbor Huron vs. Taylor Truman.

In the semis against a highly-touted Glenn club, Belleville jumped to a 19-10 lead, widened the margin to 36-23 at the half, and then never looked back until they had secured the 68-50 victory.

Glenn's top scorer, Eric Jones, got into early foul problems and was forced to the bench most of the first and second periods.

Edwards, that's Kevin, and Grantham, each fired in a pair of treys to get the Tigers off on the right track against the Rockets.

Jones finished with 11 points and five rebounds and Yaku Moton added 13 points and an equal number of rebounds.

Grantham's 18 points stood up as the game's high. Kevin and 11 and cousin John finished with 10 for the Tigers who made only five of 13 charities. Glenn also had a poor night at the foul line where they made 14 of 25.

The Westlanders ended the season with a 13-8 overall record.

"We started as a young team, matured at the end and are looking forward to 1998-99 when most of these kids will be back in the lineup," said Glenn coach Mike Schuette.

Hockey teams skate to help 'Make a Wish' come true for kids

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

It's that time of year again, when the famous Detroit Red Wing Alumni Association members take on the "over 40" Law Auto Sales Senior Hockey team members in an effort to help children involved with the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Michigan.

This year's matchup will take place at 7:30 p.m. March 27 at the Wayne Ice Arena on Howe road at the corner of Indianapolis road in Wayne. All tickets cost $3, but a family package is available for $10 and can include seats for two adults and up to four children.

Some of the noted Red Wing alumni, who are expected to turnout include, Alex Delvecchio, John Wilson, John Ogronick, Nick Libett, Dennis Hextall, Dwight Foster, Gary Bergman, Eddie Mio, Lefty Wilson and many others.

The Law Auto Sales stars will include about 15-16 team members. Vince Law said the game scores have been very respectable, in fact "we tied them 3-3 about five years ago."

Both past visits by Red Wing great Gordie Howe and young children involved with the Make-A-Wish effort have been rather touching in the past, Law said.

One of the major efforts that adds to the financial help for the Make-A-Wish donation is the auctioning of various pieces of Red Wing memorabilia and other merchandise supplied by area merchants.

Persons wishing to donate items for the auction should call Law at 734-722-5200.

Law is proud that the funds they have been able to pass on to the children's cause has escalated from about $500-$600 in its early stages to $12,000-$15,000 in recent years.

Tickets for the hockey game can be obtained by calling the above phone number or by visiting the Wayne Ice Arena.

Ron Spielman, general manager of the Michigan Community Newspapers, revealed that once again the MCN will be a sponsor of the big game.

"We are proud to support this community effort that has helped so many appreciative youngsters down through the years."

with 19 for the game.

Airport's Luke Baker was the only player for the losers to reach double figures. He had 15 points.

In the semifinal warm-up, Romulus erupted for 30-points in the first period, added 26 in the second en route to a lopsided 95-55 victory that ended Jefferson's season.

The Eagles led 30-13 after one, built up a 56-26 advantage at the half before DelGiudice en masse used the bench. Romulus also went from a full-court press to a zone defense, a rare sight for Eagle fans.

But the Eagles came back after Jefferson outscored them 17-8 in the third. Romulus outscored their opponents 31-14 in the final eight minutes.

Hicks with 18 points, 10 of those in the first period, led all scorers. DeYampert added 16, and Kirkland scored eight but had 10 rebounds.

At week's end, Romulus had an excellent 18-4 overall record.

There was little doubt about which team would surface the district champ at Airport after the first eight minutes. With Brandon DeYampert tossing in nine points, the Eagles flew to a 22-8 lead that was never challenged the rest of the way.

DelGiudice had an opportunity to go to the bench indiscriminately, a luxury he figures will not occur in the regionals.

The Eagles surfaced with a 38-22 lead at half, then put it way out of Airport's reach with a 26-10 third quarter.

Reggie Kirkland played a strong game at both ends of the floor, grabbing 13 rebounds while contributing 16 points. DeYampert finished with 15 and Melvin Hicks, who started slow (he scored only two points in the first period) came back

Sonoma pickups have what it takes

GMC pickups for 1998 have what it takes to deliver what pickup buyers want most out of a truck. I recently had the chance to test the Sonoma. It was everything that I expected out of a 4x4 vehicle. Rugged and tough this truck could handle all of my needs, and then some.

Inside and out, you couldn't ask for much more. This Sonoma came standard with a vortec 4300 V6 SFI engine with overdrive. The power that this vehicle produced was good, it could have been even better though with a V8 power supply. However, for ones basic needs, it will do the trick.

When looking at the exterior of this one, you can see just how sporty it appears. The design on this truck was right on target. The interior was nice as well, with a 60/40 bench seat and plush upholstery. I also found the seating to be comfy, with plenty of leg and head room. All of the gadgets such as windshield wipers, headlights, radio controls intermittent wipers, full floor mats, and dual lighted visor mirrors.

While driving this truck, as I stated the power was good I had no problem merging on the highway, or taking off from a traffic light. One thing I did find however, was that the cabin noise was much louder than one would expect.

I was not all that pleased with the gas mileage, especially taking into consideration that it was only a V6. In the city, mileage would range from 14 to 16 miles per gallon, and on the highway about 20 miles per gallon. Then, if you kick it in four-wheel drive, the mileage drops off considerably.

Maximum tow rating for this model is 5,500 lbs. with appropriately rated trailer hitch. Total base price of this Sonoma was $19,773, as tested $22,145. I would recommend this vehicle for anyone. It can handle all of your driving and hauling needs. I just wish that I had tested a V8.

School lunch rooms score near perfect

By DON RICHTER
MCN Special Writer

The Health Department of Wayne County has just recently completed the annual inspection of all nine Van Buren Food Service kitchens and dining areas, under the direction of Mary Kay LeBourdais, Food Service Supervisor. The average score received for all nine locations was 97.9 percent out of a possible 100 percent.

"The scores received this year are truly outstanding and impressive," said Superintendent James Richendar. "We are most pleased with the fact that five school locations, North Middle School, Edgemont, Elwell, Savage and Tyler Elementary Schools received 100 percent, which is a perfect score. Haggerty and Rawsonville Elementary Schools received 99 percent. This is the fifth year in a row that our scores with the Health Department have averaged over 94 percent for all school locations."

The Michigan Department of Public Health conducts unannounced inspections of all food service establishments on an annual basis. The inspection report is comprised of 44 areas of concern. These areas include food condition, food protection, personnel habits, equipment, water, sewage, plumbing, refuse disposal, insect control, lighting/ventilation and toilet/hand washing facilities. The inspection report includes starting points for evaluation. Violations are assessed at point values of one through five depending on the severity of the infraction and the debits are then deducted from the initial 100 points.
